Case No. A04-00225-HAR
In Chapter 7

10 MEMORANDUM REGARDING
INTENTION TO REDUCE ATTORNEY
FEES

11 After reviewing the application by John Siemers for attorney fees,<sup>1</sup> I believe they are 12 excessive, and propose to reduce them by $5,000.00 (on top of a voluntary reduction of $4,090.29
13 given by Mr. Siemers). I will give Mr. Siemers an opportunity to respond to the proposed 14 reduction and be heard on his response.

15 Most of the fees were incurred in an adversary with Darryl Jordan, his wife, and two 16 children to assert an interest in a family residence.<sup>2</sup> The property was acquired 9-10 years before
17 the bankruptcy in the name of the wife and children, but not the debtor. Nonetheless, the debtor
18 lived there, made payments on the deed of trust note, and sometimes did things or made 19 statements as if he was a co-owner.

20 A majority of the fees were incurred in preparing the summary judgment motion filed by 21 the trustee to establish the equitable interest of the debtor, and the opposition to the cross-motion
22 for summary judgment by the Jordans.

23
24 <sup>1</sup> Docket No. 61, seeking $28,698.00 in fees and $392.29 in costs, for a total of $29,090.29, less a
25 discount of $4,090.29 given by Mr. Siemers, for a net request of $25,000.00. Fees were calculated at $200.00 per 26 hour.

27 <sup>2</sup> Adv. No. A06-90010-HAR.

1 The court has an independent duty to review attorney fees, even without an objection.<sup>3</sup> In 2 this case, debtor spent about 96.9 hours preparing the trustee's motion and responding to the 3 Jordans' opposition. The attached table excerpts summary judgment work from the trustee's bill.

4 I have reviewed the summary judgment pleadings in the adversary and find that the issues
5 were somewhat fact intense, but the legal issues were not unusually complex with respect to the 6 trustee's position that debtor had an equitable interest in the residence. What strikes me is that 7 over twelve full 8-hour days of time is charged on the summary judgment task. An estimate of 8 five full 8-hour days (40 hours), or generously adding another day ( 48-hours) seems more
9 reasonable. Especially when the trustee was shooting for only about a $72,000 recovery if he had 10 prevailed.

11 The attached chart shows that if 48-hours at $200.00 per hour is used for the amount
12 found reasonable for attorney fees for this portion of the work, or $9,600.00, a further reduction
13 of $5,669.71 results. The court has rounded this down to only a $5,000.00 reduction to error on 14 Mr. Siemer's side.

15 If Mr. Siemers accepts the reduction, the amount allowed for attorney fees and costs would 16 be $20,000.00 and not $25,000.00. If he does not contest this result, the trustee can lodge an 17 amended order for distribution. He shall be granted until Tuesday, October 21, 2008 to file a 18 response and request a hearing, if he desires one.
